The Chairman (Mr. Sterling). Arthur MacDonald is present to give a hearing on bill H. R. 16733, to establish a laboratory for the study of the criminal, pauper, and defective classes. This bill was introduced by me and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. The chairman (Mr. Jenkins) referred it to this subcommittee. The bill is as follows: [H. R. 16733, Sixtieth Congress, first session.] A Bill To establish a laboratory for the study of the criminal, pauper, and defective classes. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be established at Washington, in the District of Columbia, a laboratory for the study of the abnormal classes, and the work shall include not only laboratory investigations, but also the collection of sociological and...
